

Homemakers took a trip to Hardin County Extension Office to visit the Quilt Show!
We then had a picnic at Lincoln's Homeplace in Hodgenville KY!

September Recap

The month of September has been a little crazy and busy but in a good way! I am glad to be back full time and to begin offering more classes to everyone!

During September, I took a group of Homemakers to the Hardin County Extension Office to visit the Quilt Show that they were hosting! I have never seen so many beautiful quilts in my life. I added a few photos of my favorite quilts that were on display. Along with quilts, they had a large amount of vendors there selling everything from fabric, patterns, to vintage sewing machines. We finished off the trip by having a picnic at Abraham Lincoln's Homeplace!

Not pictured, we had a Cooking from the Calendar class that had the recipes from August and September demonstrated. Those recipes were Peanut Butter Oatmeal Cookies and Ramen Skillet Dinner. Everyone had good reviews although it was a little on the spicy side!

This is a busy month of activities so make sure that you reserve your spot for a class or meal and put all these dates in your calendar so that you won't forget anything fun!

What else has Katelyn done in September?

- LEAP with Head Start and Little Lambs
- Senior Center
- Just Family Adult Day
- In person and Zoom Trainings
- FCS Staff Meetings
- Cooking from the Calendar
- Planned, Planned, Planned!

Students with LEAP assembled their own yogurt sundaes after reading the book "Rodeo Ron and His Milkshake Cows"
